Welcome Note from the National Director

As we enter the beginning of 2024's first quarter, I'm delighted to reconnect with you through our latest quarterly newsletter. This period has seen significant progress and achievements, thanks to your consistent support and our team's dedication.

In recent months, we completed the CIMS onsite assessment, which is a big step in improving our standards and practices. Additionally, our Lenten spiritual program brought inspiration during the sacred season, along with valuable partner visits. Through teamwork, we reached our project goals, demonstrating our commitment to collaboration and determination.

Looking ahead, let's face challenges together with optimism and determination. Your ongoing support is vital as we navigate toward growth and success.

I sincerely thank you for being an integral part of our journey. Your involvement is essential to our shared accomplishments.

With warm regards,

Rev. Fr. Luke Nelson
National Director

CSL Embraces Unity and Tradition: 2024 Thaipongal Celebration

On January 19, 2024, Caritas Sri Lanka joyously celebrated Thaipongal at the SEDEC premises, embodying unity amidst cultural diversity. Rev. Fr. ManoKumar led a bilingual Mass, honoring both Sinhala and Tamil languages, highlighting the organization's commitment to inclusivity. Staff, dressed in traditional attire, respectfully embraced Tamil customs by sitting on the floor during the ceremony. The SEDEC premises were decorated with Tamil decorations, creating a visually immersive experience. Following Mass, attendees shared delicious Pongal rice and diverse Sri Lankan cuisine, promoting unity and cultural exchange. Caritas Sri Lanka's celebration exemplified the strength in respecting and embracing diverse traditions, reinforcing its dedication to unity and harmony.

Celebrating Culture and Unity: Caritas Sri Lanka's Awrudu Festival 2024

On April 29, 2024, Caritas Sri Lanka celebrated its annual Awrudu Festival, uniting staff members with a day full of cultural richness and community spirit. The event kicked off with a holy Mass led by Rev Fr Luke Nelson and continued with a spread of traditional Sinhala and Tamil sweets. Highlighting the festivities, Mrs. Prasangi performed, adding a heartwarming note of resilience and joy. Staff participated in traditional games, promoting teamwork and unity while dressed in cultural attire. This celebration not only honoured Sri Lanka's diverse traditions but also strengthened the bonds within the Caritas community.

Caritas Norway Inspires Sustainable Transformation in Sri Lanka

From January 24th to 30th, 2024, Caritas Sri Lanka welcomed Mr. Tobias Wilbers and Ms. Maria Langås from Caritas Norway on a transformative journey across Sri Lanka's Food Security program field locations in Kandy, Anuradhapura, and Vanni. Guided by National Director Rev. Fr. Luke Nelson Perera, the visit showcased the impactful partnership between Caritas Norway, the Government of Norway (NORAD), and Caritas Sri Lanka. Since 2018, the island-wide Food Security program has empowered over 7,800 farmer families, benefiting 6,800 school children, 690 unemployed youth, and 3,000 mothers. During insightful field visits, the advisors witnessed firsthand the program's profound effects, fostering gratitude and hope in communities nationwide. This collaborative effort exemplifies sustainable development and compassionate outreach, showing the way for positive change.

On January 30, 2024, Caritas Norway delegates Tobias Wilbers and Maria Langås met with Rt. Rev. Dr. Harold Antony Perera to discuss collaborative efforts with Caritas Sri Lanka, focusing on sustainable agriculture and religious harmony.

Caritas Norway has been dedicated since January 2018 to reducing hunger and poverty across Sri Lanka's 25 districts. The meeting demonstrated an ongoing commitment to positive change and collaboration.

Celebrating Women's Strength: International Women's Day 2024 at CSL

On March 7, 2024, Caritas Sri Lanka (CSL) hosted a remarkable celebration for International Women's Day at the auditorium. Women from diverse backgrounds, including plantation communities, the North and East regions, activists, and social workers, gathered to commemorate their achievements. National Director Rev. Fr. Luke Nelson lit the oil lamp, symbolizing women's empowerment.

The event, structured in two sessions, featured personal narratives, expert insights, and cultural performances. Dr Ajantha and Ms Achala discussed women's rights, while heartfelt performances honoured women's resilience. Plantation workers and others shared their stories, emphasizing solidarity. A closing movie clip, "The Voice of Women," echoed women's collective strength. CSL's celebration affirmed its dedication to gender equality and social justice, amplifying women's voices and stories of triumph.

Celebrating Progress: CSL Advances with CI MS

In a significant step towards organizational excellence, Caritas Sri Lanka achieved a milestone by undergoing an onsite assessment of the Caritas Internationalis Management Standards (CIMS) from April 2nd to 5th, 2024. Dr John Arokiaraj conducted the assessment, engaging in various meetings and field visits to the Rathnapura and Mannar Dioceses communities.

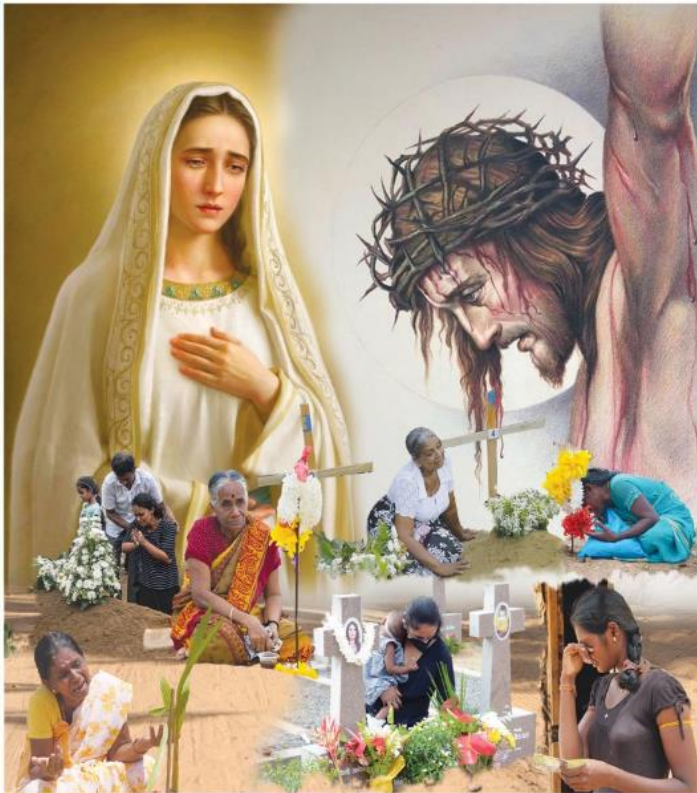

Dr. John's expertise and constructive approach were important in guiding CSL towards further enhancements in operations and standards. This assessment underscores CSL's dedication to growth and development, with gratitude extended to all stakeholders for their support. Caritas Sri Lanka remains committed to its mission, poised for continued impactful humanitarian efforts.

CSL Enriches Lenten Season with Spiritual Program and Publications

Lent with the Oppressed - Seeking Justice

Lenten Spiritual Programme 2024

Catholic National Commission for Justice, Peace and Human Development
Caritas Sri Lanka - SEDEC

Caritas Sri Lanka, in its commitment to fostering spiritual growth and social justice, organized a compelling Lenten program for the 2024 Lenten season. At the heart of this initiative was the publication of a book titled "Lent with the Oppressed - Seeking Justice." This comprehensive guide offers 40 days of profound reflections, meticulously crafted to deepen spiritual introspection and inspire action towards social equality. What sets this publication apart is its accessibility, being available in three languages, and ensuring its reach across diverse communities.

Complementing this literary offering, Caritas Sri Lanka also unveiled a thematic poster for Lent, echoing the sentiment of "Lent with the Oppressed - Seeking Justice." This visual representation serves as a reminder of the Lenten journey towards solidarity with the marginalized and the pursuit of justice.

Furthermore, the organization demonstrated its dedication to grassroots engagement by distributing these resources through all diocesan centres across Sri Lanka, ensuring widespread access and participation. In a profound display of devotion and solidarity, Caritas Sri Lanka staff engaged in the Way of the Cross at Karuwalagaswewa Church, aligning their spiritual practices with the essence of the Lenten program.

Through these initiatives, Caritas Sri Lanka continues to embody its mission of compassion and empowerment, enriching the Lenten season with profound spiritual insights and a call to action for justice and solidarity.

CSL Marks 5th Anniversary of Easter Sunday Bomb Attack

IN MEMORY OF THOSE WE LOST IN THE EASTER SUNDAY ATTACK

2019.04.21

On the 21st of April 2024, Caritas Sri Lanka memorializes the fifth anniversary of the tragic Easter Sunday bombings at Katuwapitiya Church, with the National Director Rev. Fr. Luke Nelson in attendance.

This day remembers the profound loss and continued grief of those affected by the violence that shook our nation's core values of tolerance, peace, and communal living.

As we honour the memory of the victims, Caritas Sri Lanka repeats its commitment to supporting the affected families and calls for decisive action to bring the perpetrators to justice.

On that anniversary, we reaffirmed our dedication to a future where peace prevails, advocating for justice and reconciliation in a society striving to heal.
